This informational handout addresses filing of appeals of Type 1 and 2 decisions. If you are interested in filing an appeal, you should also obtain a copy of the applicable City regulations relating to appeals.

WHO CAN FILE AN APPEAL? Only “parties of record” may appeal the decision. A party of record is the applicant, agent, property owner, and anyone who submitted written comments on the application to the decisionmaker during the public comment period.

WHAT IS THE DEADLINE FOR FILING AN APPEAL? A complete appeal statement and filing fee must be submitted to the City Clerk no later than 5:00 p.m. on the date indicated on the Notice of Decision (either 14 or 21 calendar days after issuance of the Notice of Decision, depending on the type of SEPA Determination that was issued for the proposal, if any).

WHAT MUST BE FILED FOR AN APPEAL?

A. A written statement setting forth:

1. Facts demonstrating that the person is adversely affected by the decision;
2. A concise statement identifying the specific findings of fact or conclusions which are being appealed;
3. The specific relief requested; and
4. Any other information reasonably necessary to make a decision on the appeal.

B. Current filing fee.

APPEAL HEARING—TYPE 1 DECISION: If a Type 1 decision is appealed, an open record appeal hearing before the Hearing Examiner will be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to all parties of record.

APPEAL HEARING—TYPE 2 DECISION: If a Type 2 decision is appealed, a closed record appeal hearing before the City Council will be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to all parties of record.
